

MEXICANS IMPRISON AMERICAN WOMEN

AMERICAN WOMEN CAPTIVES OF MEXICANS; HURRY CALL TO WASHINGTON FOR AID

Warship Asked to Liberate Mothers With Children Subject to Indignities.

KNOX TAKES ACTION.

Wires Mexico City for Relief for Prisoners Denied Them by Diaz Officials.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 10.—Mexican filibusters held a number of American women and children captive in a stockade at Alamo, Lower California. It became known here today that the prisoners are said to be at the mercy of their captors and to have suffered insults and indignities. Protests have been made to Secretary of State Knox, and Senator Perkins, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, has been advised.

Among those held captive are G. Raff, his wife and five children of San Diego. The names of the others have not been disclosed. The appeal to Secretary Knox was made by O. Henry Savage of this city, a relative of Mrs. Raff.

Relief Is Refused. News of the condition of the prisoners at Alamo was brought to Ensenada last week. Savage said today, and reported to George H. Schumaker, United States Consul, as well as to Gov. Celo Vega of Lower California. Savage charged that Vega did not send relief and that Schumaker ignored the complaint.

Fearing for the welfare of the prisoners in the hands of the rebels, who are said to be commanded by Simon Berthold, Savage wired Secretary Knox Sunday afternoon as follows:

"Members of my family and other American women and children held at Alamo, Mexico, by rebels. Unable to obtain food or relief. Wires to Ensenada are down. Reliably informed that Mexican Governor Lower California desires relief. Will you order warship to Ensenada to rescue? Please answer."

"O. HENRY SAVAGE"

Knox Promises Aid.

The following telegram was received by Mr. Savage yesterday: "The American Ambassador at Mexico City has been instructed by telegram to request the Mexican Government to extend protection to the American citizens mentioned in your telegram of yesterday, and the American Consul at Ensenada has been instructed by telegram to investigate and report and to ask the Governor for needed protection for these people."

(Signed) PHILANDER C. KNOX. State Senator Leroy A. Wright telegraphed news of the situation to Senator Perkins yesterday afternoon in the hope that the latter would use his influence at Washington to secure quick action.

The case was also taken to Rear Admiral Chauncey Thomas, commander of the Pacific fleet, who was urged by Savage to send a warship to Ensenada. Admiral Thomas said that he could not act without orders from Washington.

All attempts today to secure information on the subject from the United States Consul at Ensenada have failed and no statement can be secured from the Mexican officials in Lower California.

Savage said today that his advice from Ensenada gave no reason for the imprisonment of the Americans and their families at Alamo. He said the Americans were employed in the mines near Alamo and that Berthold, the guerrilla chief, had confiscated all the supplies in the town. Savage is a prominent business man of this city.

SMALL BOY PUTS OUT FIRE IN GIRL PLAYMATE'S DRESS.

Louise Glendene of No. 3 West End avenue, an eight-year-old girl, dancing about a bonfire in the street in front of her home today, lit her skirt too close to the flames. The child blazed up and she ran down the street on fire. Giuseppe Derrito, a five-year-old boy living in the same house, ran after her and slapped out the flames with his coat. Louise was badly burned about the face, arms and legs. She was taken to Flower Hospital. Dr. Reed, who said there was small hope of her recovery. The little boy's hands were badly burned.

NORTON ELECTED BY BANK.

Charles D. Norton, formerly private secretary to President Taft, was elected Vice-President of the First National Bank at the monthly meeting of its directors this afternoon.

Mr. Norton fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of T. W. Latham, who is now associated with the bankers firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. He will take up his duties next week.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER.

The body of a man about forty-five years old, five feet eleven inches in height, was found in the North River at Horse avenu, Jersey City, today. It was sent to the morgue.

A search of the clothing revealed a letter addressed to Abel Lathrop, No. 6 Hamilton avenue, Brooklyn. Mr. Lathrop could throw no light on the man's identity.

(Special to The Evening World.)

TOLDO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, April 10.—In their last exhibition of shadow boxing before the grueling contest of the morrow, the Giants entered Southpaw Wiltse to get a proper slant on his curve and control before sending him in against the big leaguers. Joe McGinnity accepted the bait for Newark by entering Mr. Lee, a worthy-looking side-wheeler, who was put in for no other purpose than to give our worthy heroes a little practice against port flinging, which in many quarters has been reported to be their weakness.

The public evidently did not know about the game, for the game was not here or else they have gone South with their handbills in preparation for the big show to-morrow.

George Browne, who formerly wore Giant spanglers, was the first man to face Wiltse, and he recalled old days by slugging out a strike. He tried to steal second, however, but Wilson nailed him with ease, and the next two batters perished.

Devore started for the Giants with a hit, but also died stealing second, and Dwyer and Shoemaker failed to materialize.

In the beginning of the third round Brown showed signs of hostility by cracking Wiltse in the shin with a line drive and bouncing the ball into left field for a two-cushion single, but the other batters were unequal to the occasion.

The left-hander was still too strong for the giants in their half, and the game was a perfect stranger to them all.

DOROTHY ARNOLD MOURNED AS DEAD BY HER FAMILY.

All Hope Abandoned of Ever Finding Long-Missing Girl Alive.

Having abandoned all hope that Dorothy Arnold will ever be found alive, the family of Francis R. Arnold of No. 10 East Seventy-ninth street has gone into mourning for the girl who so mysteriously disappeared 12 years ago. Mr. Arnold has maintained from the day his daughter left her home that only death could explain her absence. For the sake of younger members of the family mourning was not put on until recently.

While Mr. Arnold believes his daughter is dead he is not neglecting any possible clue that might solve the mystery. A private detective is regularly employed running down all tips that are sent to the father. While the mail has considerably fallen off, many suggestions and theories are received by the father, and clinging to a hope they may reveal something, every one is investigated.

Mr. Arnold has been in ill health all winter owing to the strain of his daughter's absence and he seldom goes to business. He has aged considerably within the past few weeks.

MEASLES BAR DIAZ ENVOY.

Sickness at Embassy Shuts Out New Mexican Ambassador.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—A stranger in a strange land, the new Mexican Ambassador to the United States, Senor Manuel de Zamora y Inclan, is barred from his official residence here. Measles in the family of the former ambassador, Senor de la Barra, has prevented his successor from occupying the embassy. The three children of the de la Barra family are down with the disease, but all are convalescent.

Andrade's Zamora was to have been received at the White House today, but a delay in the receipt of his credentials from the Mexican capital has caused a postponement. No date has been set for the function.
